BU 248-S furnished the following:

"February 17, 1964

"On February 14, 1964, a Buffalo Branch Workers World Party meeting was held at 831 Main Street, Buffalo, New York. Ted Baines was Chairman of the meeting. There was no Recording Secretary or Financial Secretary.

"Ernie Weissman gave the monthly financial report, and reported a balance of $133.31 was on hand at the end of January, 1964.

"Rosemary Neidenberg gave a brief report on the trip of Admiral Perry to the North Pole. She said that he was accompanied by a Negro aide-de-camp, and that Admiral Perry and the Negro were the only persons who actually planted a flag at the North Pole. She said that others in the expedition party handled supply lines and were not actually with the Admiral when the flag was planted. She said that this is an example of a great accomplishment by a Negro.

"Ed Merrill spoke on South Viet Nam and China. He said that China would support North Viet Nam if the United States and South Viet Nam try to invade North Viet Nam. He said the United States may be planning to take over North Viet Nam and probably will not be satisfied to divide the country as they did in Korea. He said that if the United States and South Viet Nam invade North Viet Nam, a third world war may start, and that Russia, in spite of her difficulties with China, will support China and North Viet Nam in a war against the United States. He said that he doubted if France would support the United States as France wants to neutralize South Viet Nam.
